

Disappearance of the Outside

Edmonton, Alberta, in the time of COVID-19

2022

September

Part 1

Butterdome-Health Sciences

Lesley Battler

BatCave Publications | Edmonton, Alberta
© 2023 by Lesley Battler

Butterdome-Health Sciences area

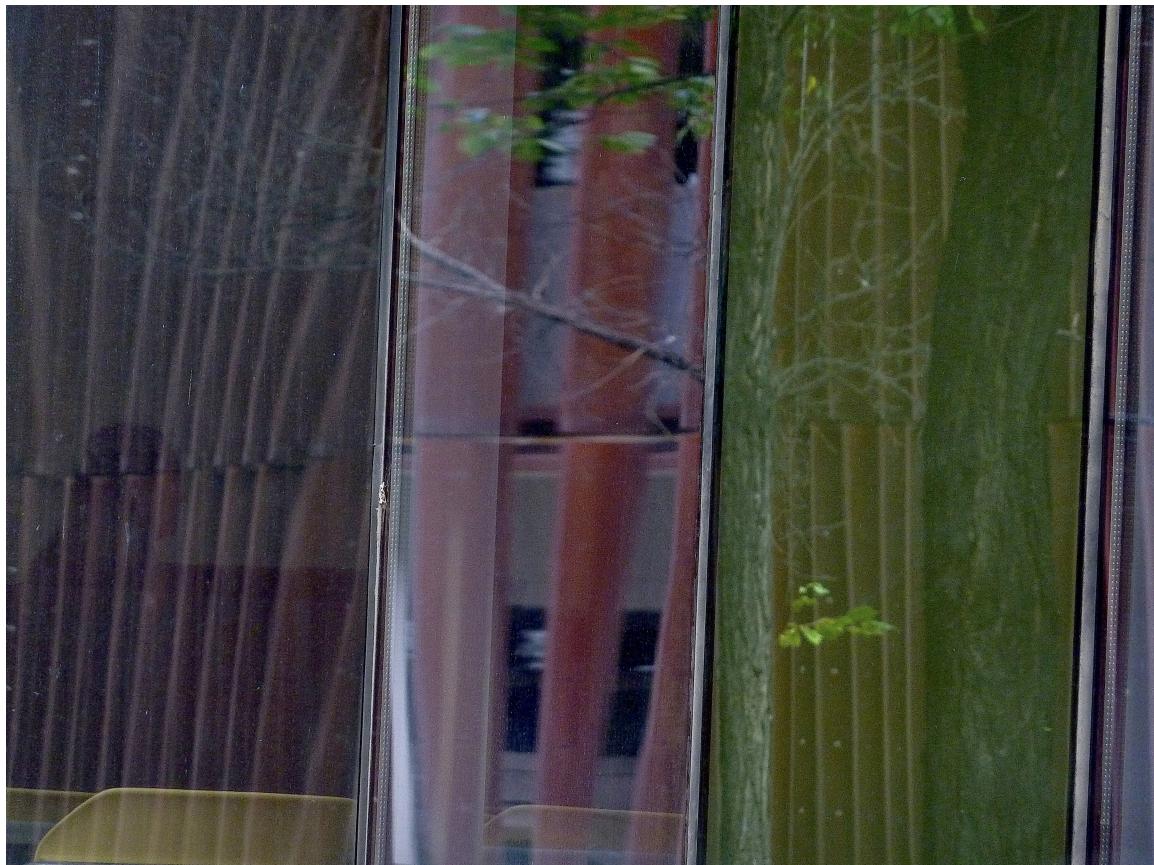

flyover zone

methods

a few afterthoughts

depth-charging

dream fragments

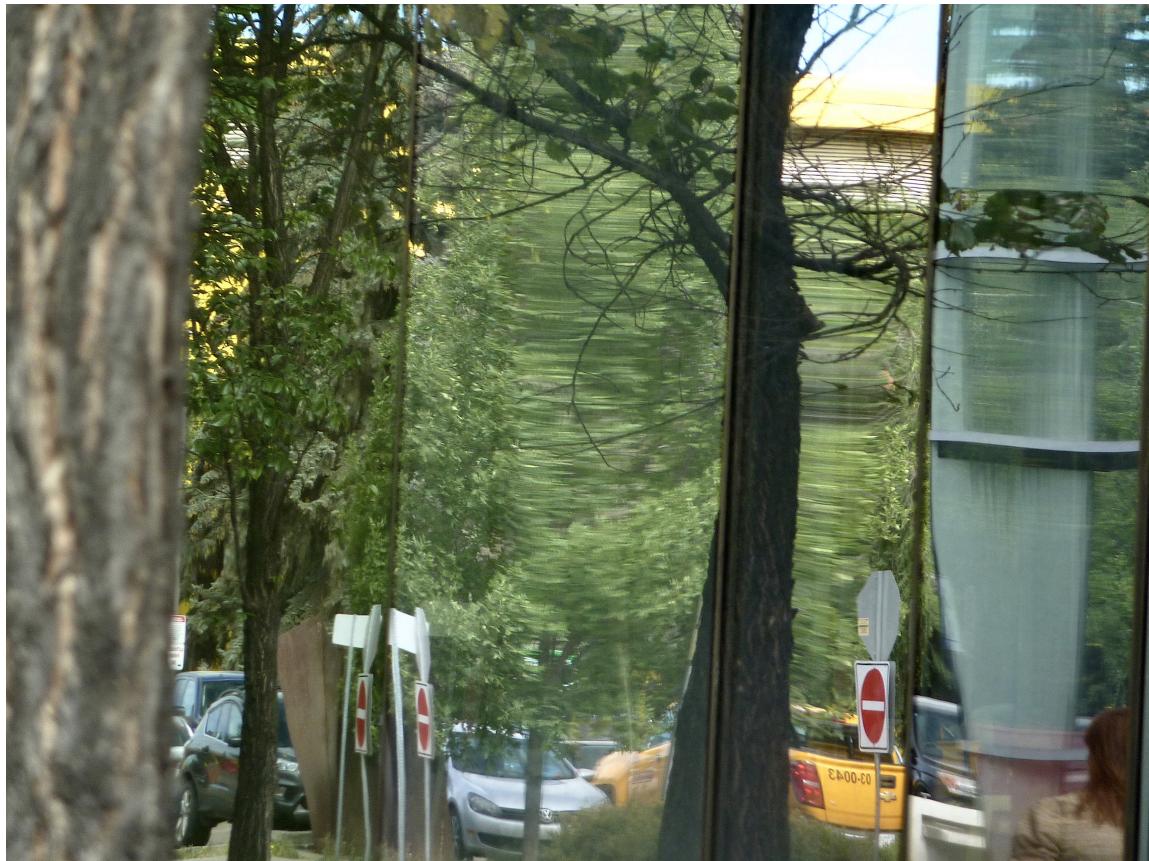

transformative vision

ghost hunting

off the beaten track

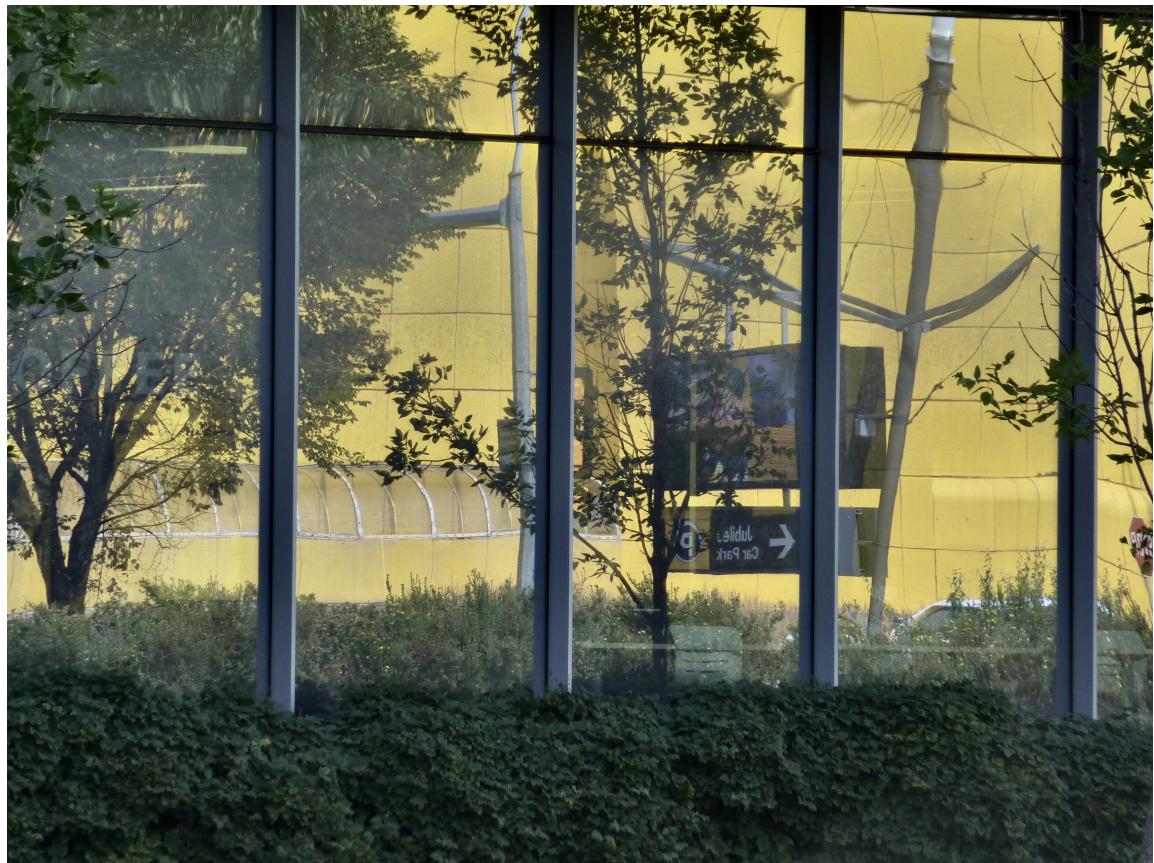

No Entry

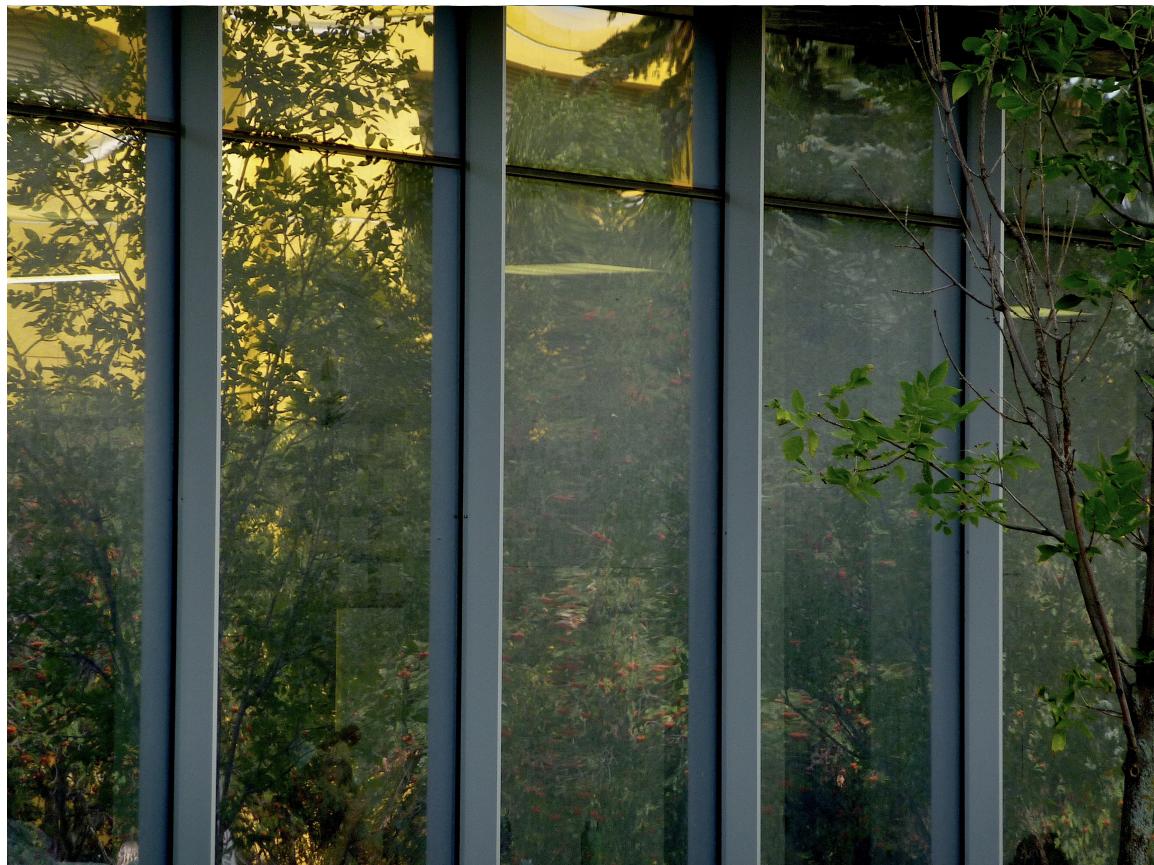

not myself today

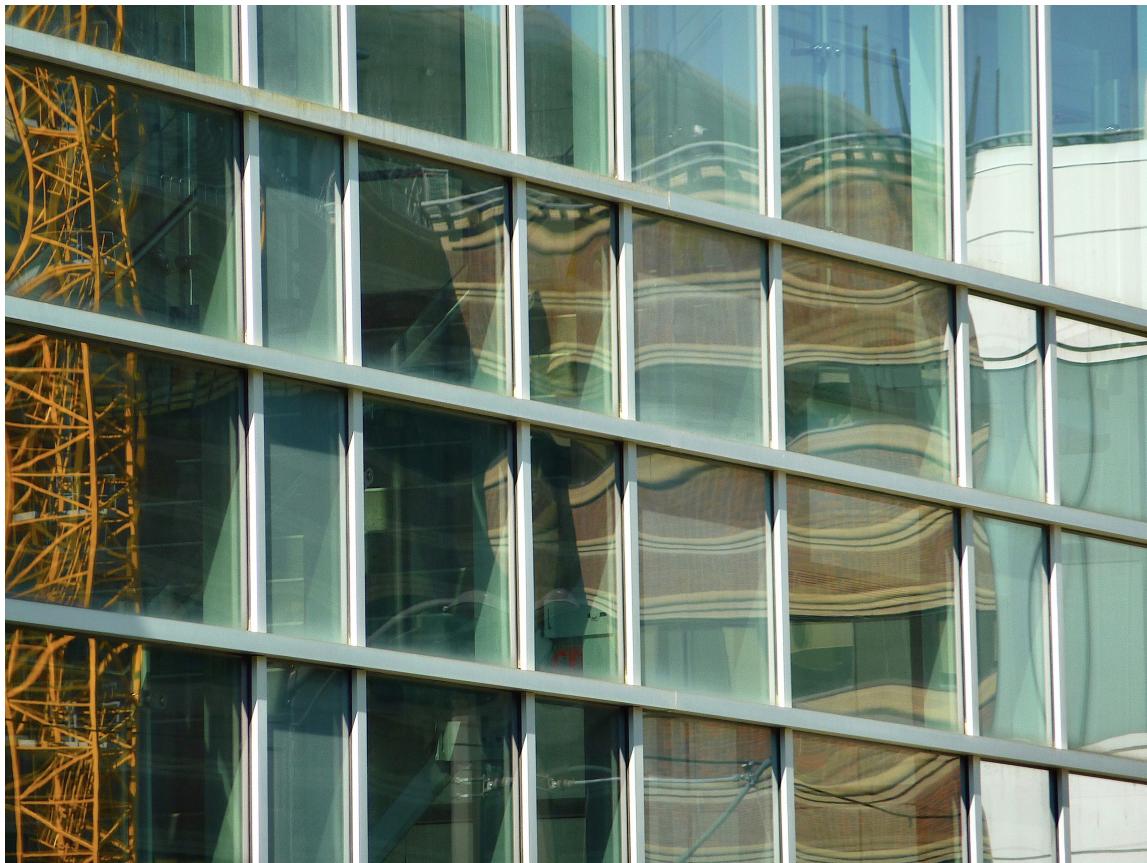

enigmatic instructions

Car Park

dreams edging closer

traces of what happened information

welcome to exurbia

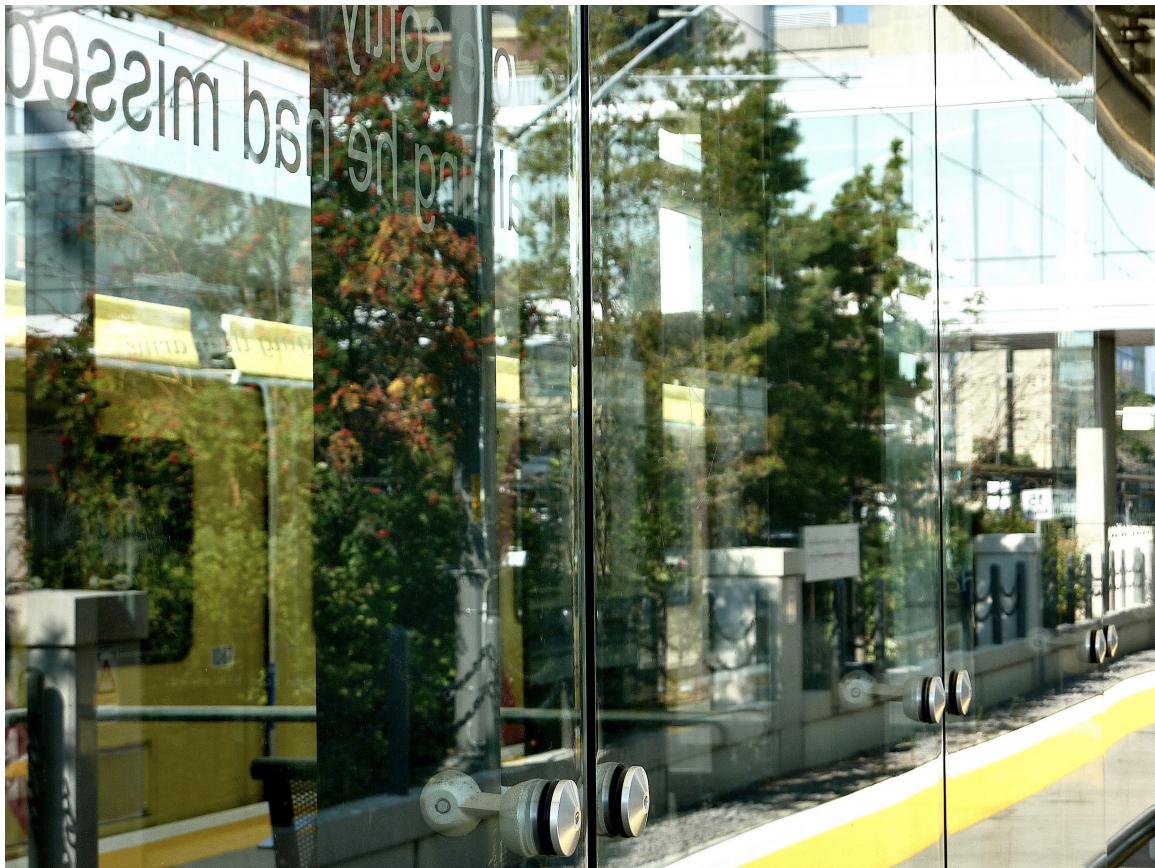

stationary

dreams of the past

the train was too full

missed

three of them

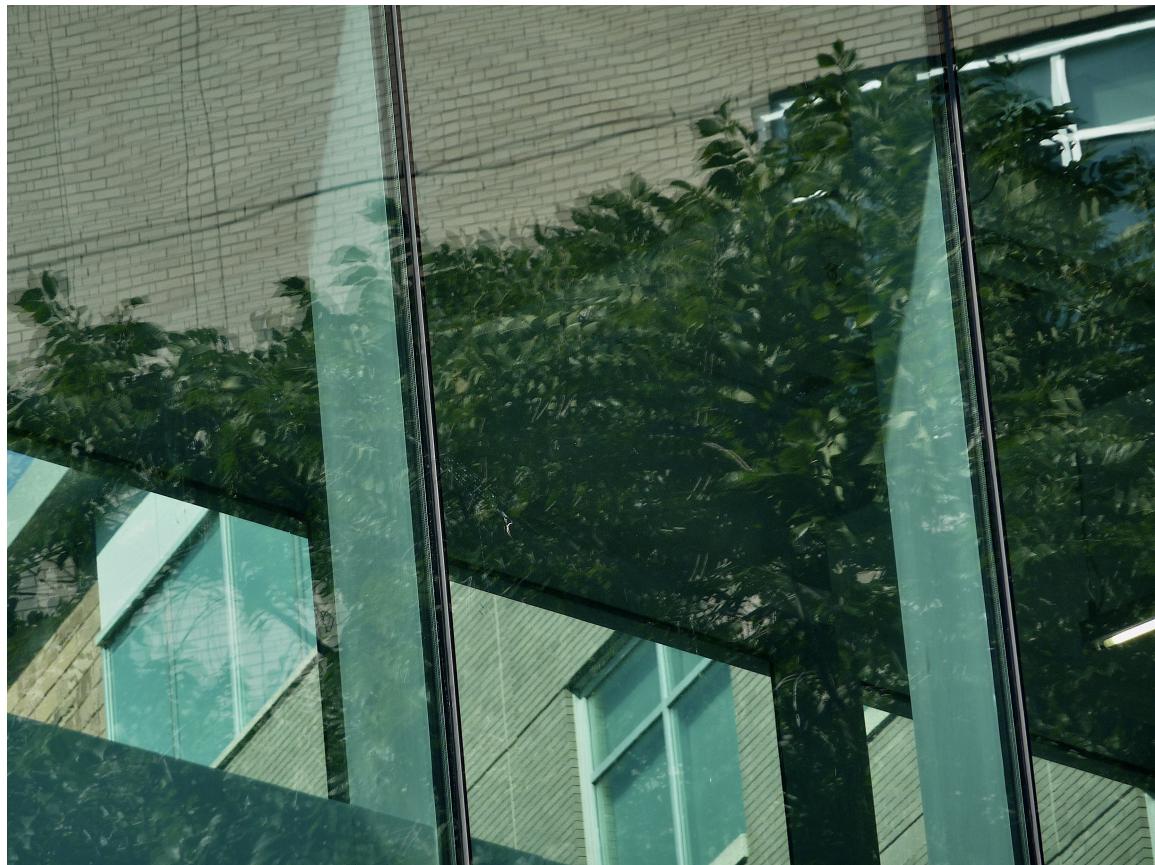

realizing it had fallen

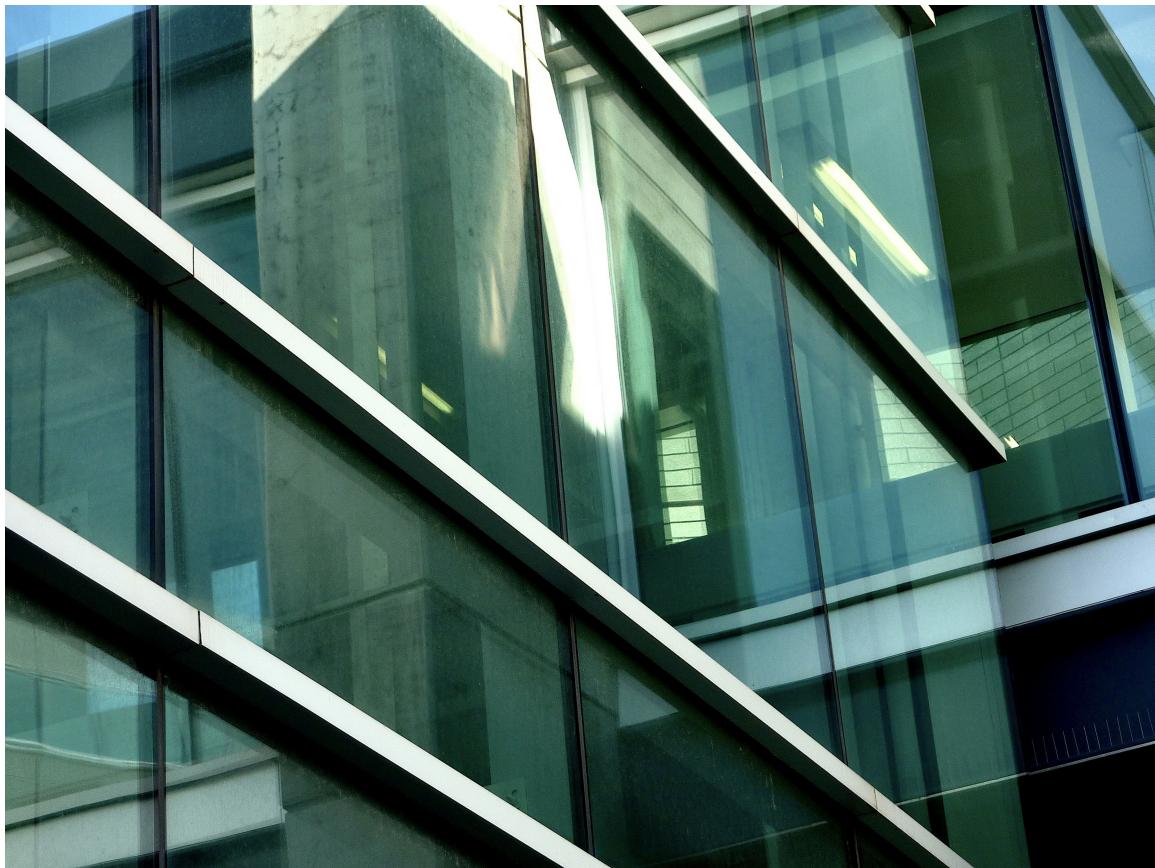

University of Alberta campus

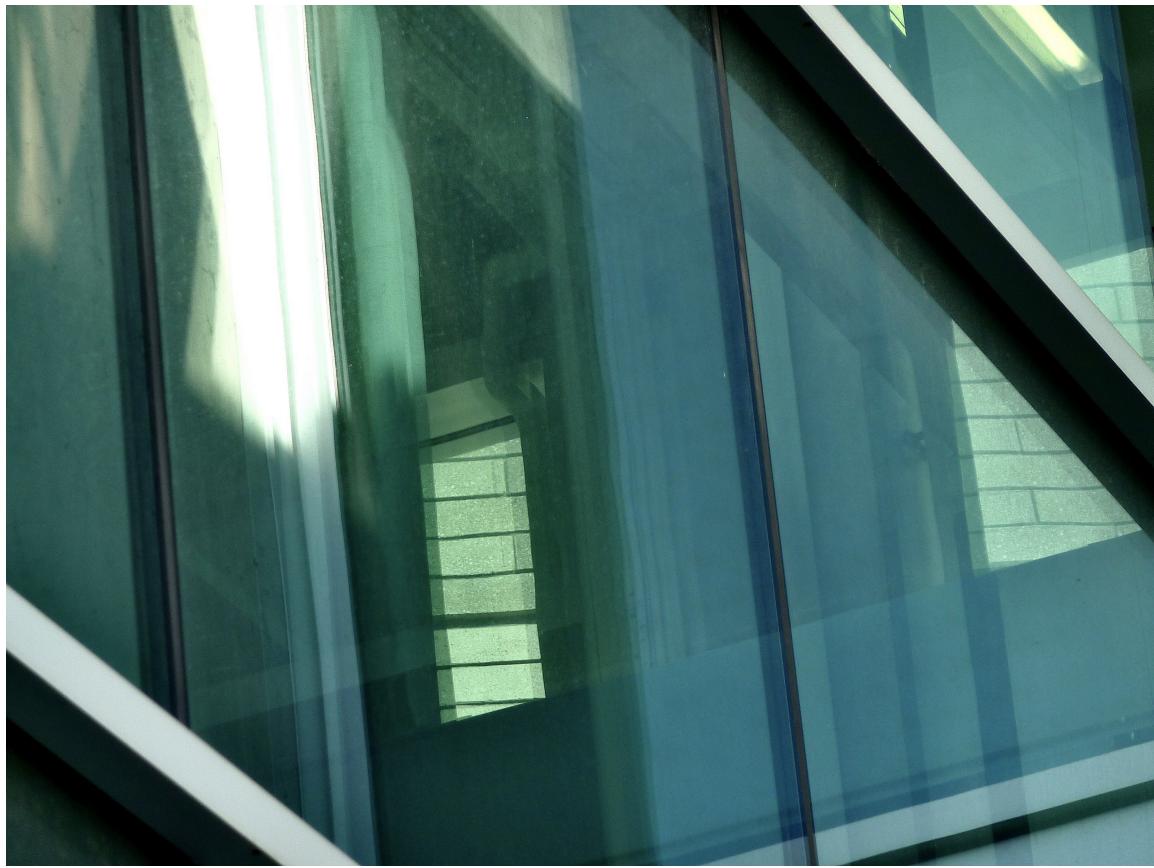

3 stairs

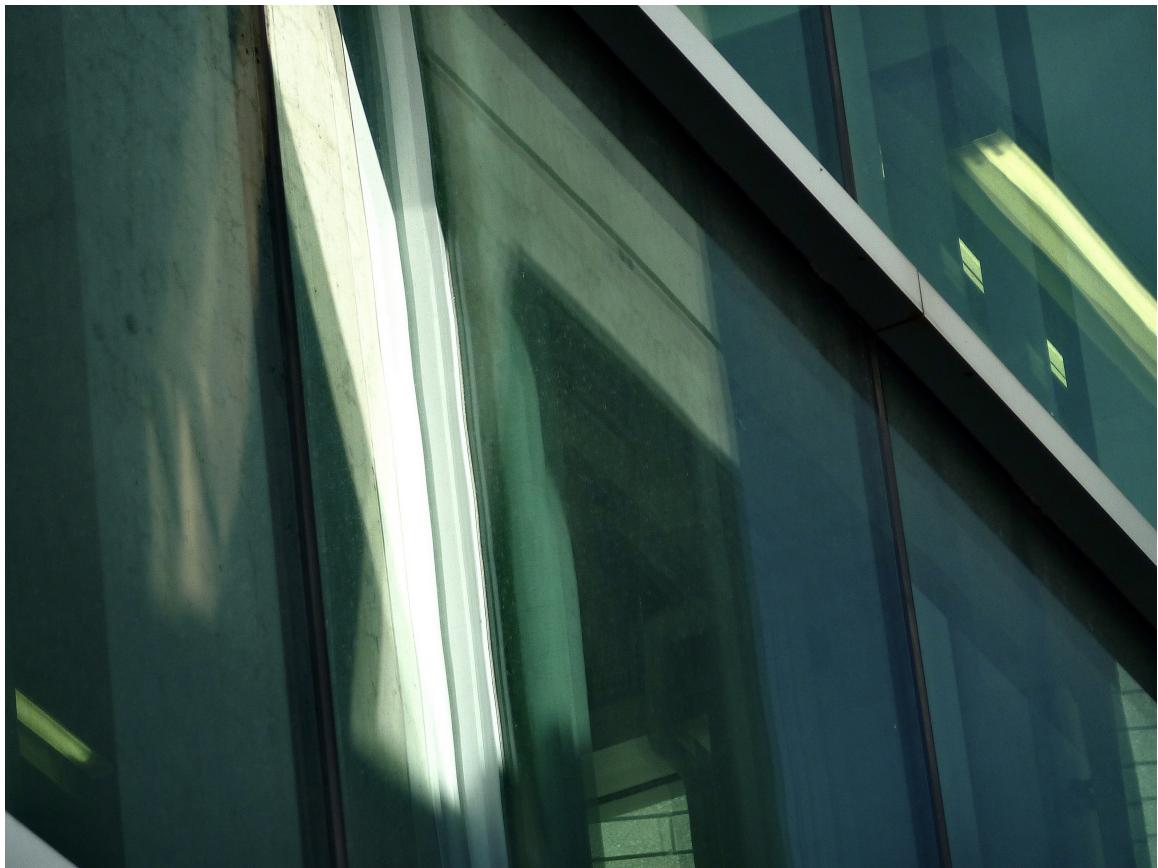

uncanny inner workings

inherited aesthetic

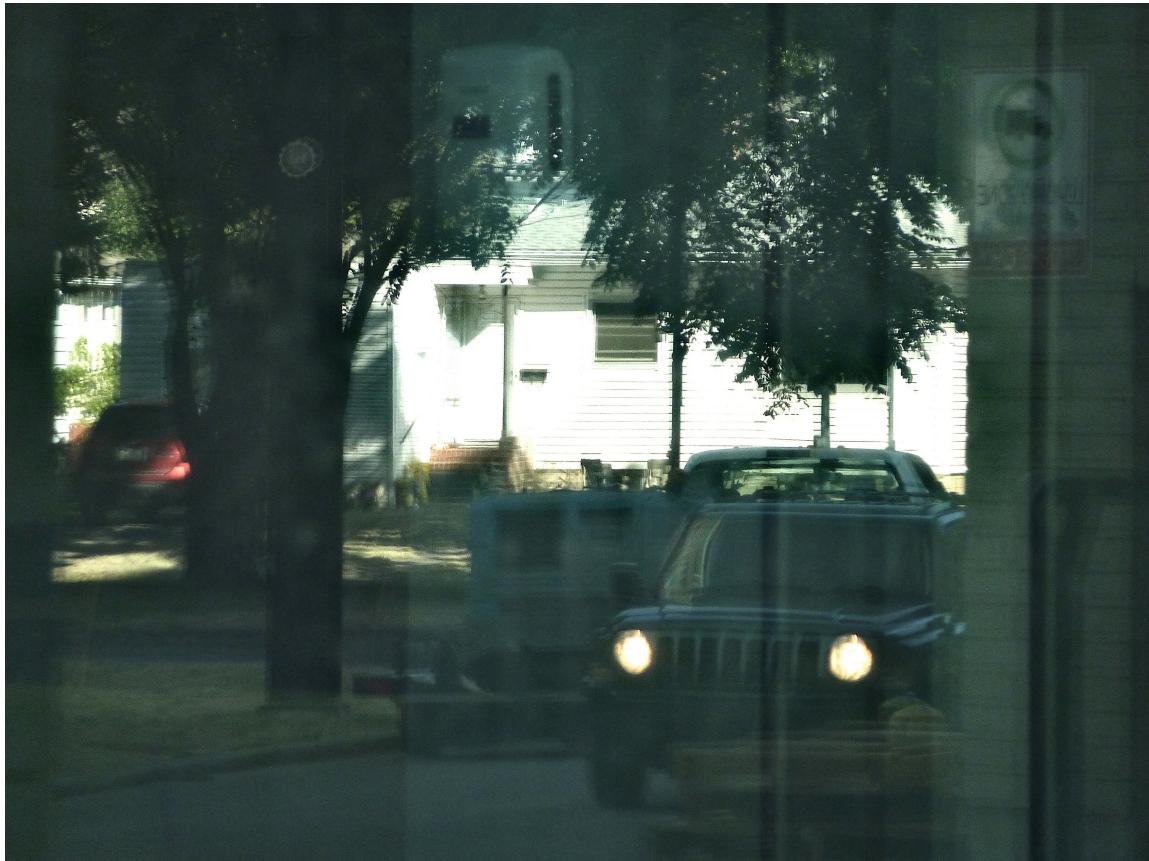

endless migration of matter through form series of unsettling events what we choose to forget on the other side of the world crossing a threshold barely a place any more crosswalk

frontier between being and non-being bend sinister

few traces of their passing no longer the world we knew restlessness

steady encroachment

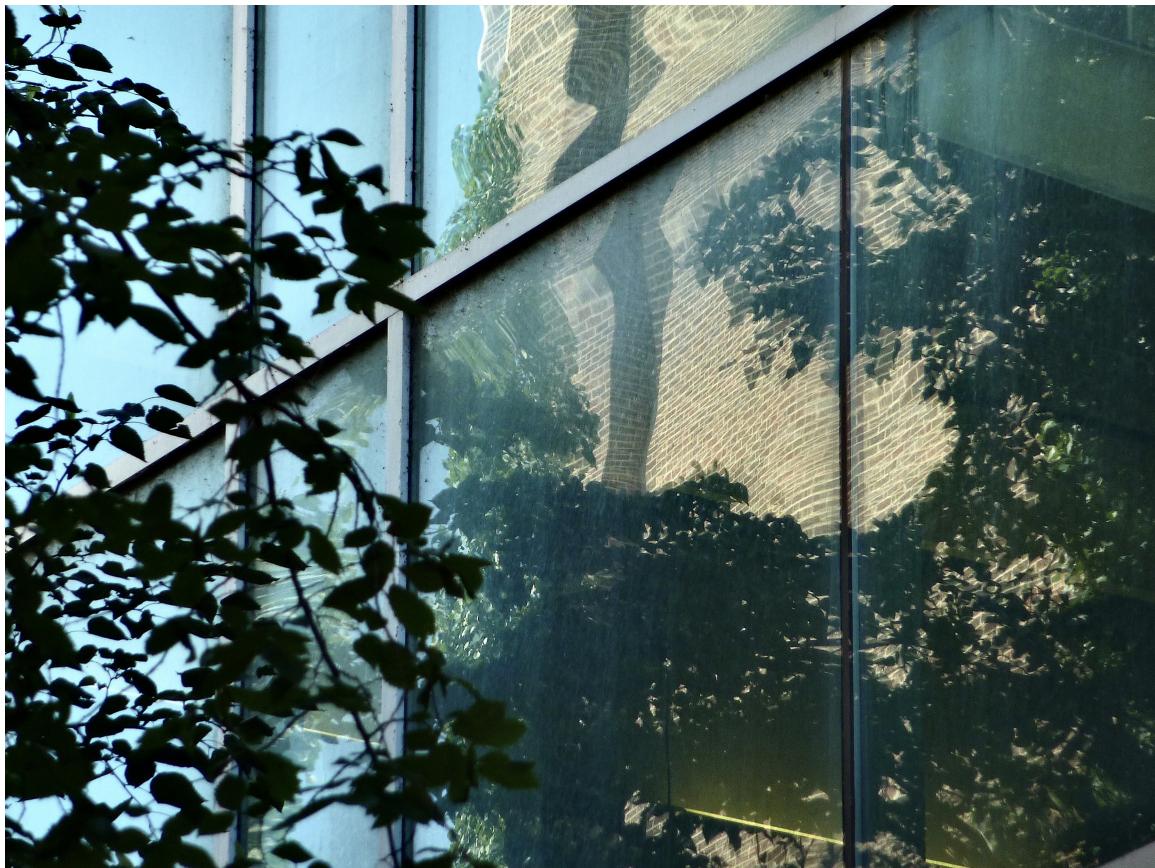

open to light and vision

new arrivals

little known region

strife between communities stormy weather ahead

the mystery of the familiar creative misgivings

Next installment:

September 2022

Part 2

University of Alberta campus

Downtown